REGISTRATION

Held at the Faculty of Law

On arrival at the Sidgwick Site, please register at the Faculty of Law. Registration opens at 9.30 am.

INFORMATION STANDS

Held at the Faculty of Law

The Faculty of Asian and Middle Eastern Studies will have stand on the lower ground floor of the Law Faculty Building. The stand gives you the opportunity to speak to members of staff and current students. The stands will be open for most of the day.

If you are interested in combining Arabic, Hebrew or Persian with a modern European language there will also be stands from the Faculty of Modern and Medieval Languages, the Careers Services and the Language Centre.

WELCOME AND COURSE PRESENTATIONS

Held at the Faculty of Asian and Middle Eastern Studies

This session will run in the morning and will be repeated in the afternoon.

A welcome from the Chairman of the Faculty followed by short presentation on each of the languages we offer: Chinese, Japanese, Arabic, Hebrew and Persian.

LANGUAGE TASTERS AND SAMPLE LECTURES

Held at the Faculty of Asian and Middle Eastern Studies

This session will run in the morning and in the afternoon. Some of the morning classes will be repeated in the afternoon.

A chance to experience a language taster class or a sample lecture. There will be a choice of sessions on offer for all five of our major languages plus language tasters for Hindi.

INFORMAL COFFEE AND INFORMAL TEA

Held at the Faculty of Asian and Middle Eastern Studies

An opportunity to meet and chat with students and staff. Tea and coffee will be available.

FACULTY LIBRARY

The Faculty of Asian and Middle Eastern Studies library will be open to visitors. The library staff will be happy to answer your questions. The library is located in the Faculty of Asian and Middle Eastern Studies building.

LUNCH ARRANGEMENTS

If you asked for a college lunch when you registered, you will be given a voucher at registration. College lunches are only provided for prospective students and it is not possible for visiting students/teachers to choose a particular college for lunch.

If you have a college lunch voucher, please assemble outside Lady Mitchell Hall at 12 noon sharp. Student volunteers will be there to accompany you to lunch at their college and bring you back to the Sidgwick Site for the afternoon programme.

If you no longer require a lunch, please return the voucher to the General Information stand in the Law Faculty.

There are several cafés on the Sidgwick Site: The Buttery and the Arc Café serve a range of hot and cold drinks, sandwiches, salads, and snacks. If you fancy exploring Cambridge, the city centre is a short walk away. Maps will be available from the General Information stand.

MML OPEN DAY

If you wish to attend sessions as part of the MML Open Day please see www.mml.cam.ac.uk/opendayugrad/index.html
